there it is...there it sat...there with the oil and jello and all night long dust where the cat had it's way...a one dollar bill or advanced nutritional pill to inch it along

on it's slithering trail dragging behind it down hillsides or up tops of sides and sides of layers and numbers and chides. it wouldn't leave with it's one eye one

Green Things is Evergreen's tenth student album project. This two year compilation is comprised of pure Evergreen student-musician-engineer-artist-composer-producer-technologist wizardry. All production for Green Things was done by students using campus facilities between January 1996 and May 1997. Enjoy.

Very Special Thanks to: Erin, Tom, Greg, and the S & A board ($); RAOUL Berman, Ken Wilhem, Jacinta McKoy, Media Loan, and all who volunteered their time and expertise at our benefit shows: 1000 Diving Robots, Butcher Holler, D.J. Tom, Omaera, That Stupid Club, Brock-E, Source of Labor, Beyond Reality, Fields of Mars, HeeND, Faith and Disease, and Stratus for supporting this project with your talent. An appreciative handshake to Alek Edmonds for his efforts from the very beginning to the very end. Two thumbs up to the musicians and engineers for their hours of production. Cheers to the selection committee for your weary eyed yet dedicated deliberation. And for the most magnificent mole-man ever encountered here on Earth, a BIG aarf to Mr. Peter Randlette for guidance, support, and just being cool.
